

A safe, decent home

Your home will be clean, secure, well maintained and meet all safety standards. Repairs will be dealt with promptly and you will be kept informed.

Dignity and respect

You will be treated fairly and without discrimination. Your culture, beliefs, identity and choices will be respected at all times.

Privacy and confidentiality

Your personal information is kept secure and only shared with your consent or where the law requires it. Staff will give notice before entering your room except in an emergency.

Support that fits you

You will have a named key worker and a support plan written with you, reviewed regularly and centred on your goals.

A voice

You can give feedback, attend tenant meetings and help shape how Solace Housing is run.

To complain and be heard

You can raise a concern or complaint at any time, without it affecting your home or support. See our Complaints Procedure for details.
