

Making a complaint

Complaints can be made in person, by phone, WhatsApp, email or through our website. Someone else can complain on your behalf.

Acknowledgement

We acknowledge every complaint within 2 working days and confirm who is handling it.

Stage 1

A manager investigates and responds in writing within 10 working days.

Stage 2

If you remain dissatisfied, a senior manager or director reviews the complaint and responds within 20 working days.

Taking it further

After our process is complete you may be able to contact the relevant Ombudsman or the local authority. We will explain which applies to you.
